

1 The health & safety at work Act.

The policies set out to keep all the employees safe and hygienic in the work place.

All the employees comes under polices who works for cultural infusion and no one is exceptional for polices.

We care about your health and safety in the location and no job is bigger than the work safety and it's very important to work under safer condition.

Our commitment is to provide safest work location to all our employees through.

Keeping healthier and safer in work location is what we can do for you.

Continuously doing the risk assessment will identify the problems, risks in location by this we can modify and update the work safety polices.

Arranging the clear and safety procedure by setting the defined objectives and targets, and by arranging health safety manager to supervise the teams.

Setting the clear responsibilities and accountability will give the empowerment in the team and the hazards, Risks in the management and in the locations will be reduced.

Strictly making to follow the health safety rules by the employees, and violating the rules may leads to strict action like terminating the employee or contractor from the organization.

Communicating and counselling all the employees and all the parties involved and associated to the organization about their own and others health safety at the work location.

Providing a clear vision about the organization and the building evacuation process, and educating all employees about the system and the health safety polices.

Conducting mark drills to check the response of employees and the operations of the machinery in the emergency services.

Providing the rehabilitation and medical assistance to the employees who got injured in the work locations.

1.1 What we do expect from the employees and suppliers,

Taking care about your health and safety and the problems causing by you to the co-employee in the job.

Being accountable to your work and the organization and communicating in health manner with co-employees.

Assigned to seat in the given chamber with all the available resources.

Entering into the only places where the individual got accessed.

Using right equipment for the right tasks and Keeping all the equipment in the safe condition/storage after the usage.

Using the equipment and resources after having the proper training on the device and with the proper speed.

Go through the user manual before starting the operation of any new devices.

Following the signs to avoid the hazards in the work location.

1.2 Breach policy.

Polices will be strictly monitored and breaking polices will leads to termination from the organization and the legally action will be taken as per the local government laws.